Description

This is a very unusual almost folk art table. French in origin and made from oak with a walnut top. The design is striking and really will sit well in a number of interiors as a decorative table with a vase or lamp on. The age is hard to determine but I would say late 18th to early 19th century. Very heavy and nice original patina all over. Height 73cm Diameter 60cm Diameter of legs 40cm
