Description

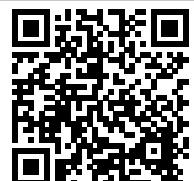

An Interesting 18th Century Italian Cherrywood Cabinet in the 17th Century Style. The cabinet standing on flattened bun feet with columnar pilasters. The doors are carved with geometric designs to the central panels and fluted designs to the upper and lower ones. Inside the cabinet is a series of adjustable shelves as well as four small drawers. The sides of the piece are finished with panelled geometric diamond and circle motifs. There is a small secret drawer concealed underneath one of the internal drawers. An unusual and practical piece with great decorative impact.
