Description

An unrestored 18th Century Delft teapot in the form of a bearded man holding a parrot which is the spout and a monkey on his back, forming the handle. It is all over decorated with scenes of ships, farm workers and flora. There is damage which is all shown in the photos, but a charming and unusual piece. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland and can calculate the cost for international delivery. Payment by bank transfer, PayPal or card via telephone.
