Description

A good example of a small antique glazed dresser dating from the late 19th / early 20th century. The base part has a long drawer with brass plate handles above two panelled cupboard doors that open to a shelved interior. The top part of the dresser is set back and has two glazed cupboard doors opening to two generous sized shelves. It is a good quality piece and splits into two parts for transport. It is in good original condition throughout and is a sturdy piece of furniture. It has been thoroughly cleaned and has a nice smooth waxed finish. It is not without some signs of age and use, some old marks and knocks and a small repair to the top cornice but nothing detrimental and the pine has a lovely warm colour. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
