Description

A Charming Arts & Crafts Oak, Wrought Iron & Leather Stool. Possibly from the Jugendstil School. The contrasting navy blue and red rectangular leather top with stud detail standing on carved and painted oak supports. The leg supports being a particular feature, almost carved to replicate the human form with lovely polychrome paint. The whole joined by a smart wrought iron frame. Provenance: From the Cornish Estate of Tinker, Tailor, Soldier, Spy Author John le Carre' (David Cornwell 1931-2020)
