Description

A fine and rare early 18th Century Oak Lowboy of superb colour and condition, a most unusual feature being the wonderful carved splayed legs. Carved with cabochon and leaf work to the knee and having claw and ball foot. The top with caddy mould and nicely carved inverted corners. The drawers with original ring drop handles, mahogany cross banding and cock beading to the edge, having good clean oak drawer linings. A fine collectors piece of English Oak country furniture.
