Description

This very attractive PAIR OF REGENCY TINSEL PICTURES, in contemporary MAPLE FRAMES, date from circa 1820. They are entitled MR. DUCROW AS THE GREEK PATRIOT and MR SMITH AS THE PIRATE OF THE BLACK SEA. Andrew DUCROW (1793-1842) was a British Circus Performer, often called The Colossus of Equestrians, and Proprietor of Astley's Amphitheatre. The pictures have been enhanced with coloured silk and metal adornments and your attention should be drawn to the Skull and Crossbones detail to the edge of The Pirates tunic and Hat. They are full of colour, vigour and dramatic intent. Height:12.75 inches (33 cm) Width: 10.75 inches (27.5 cm) One frame is very slightly smaller. Express delivery within the UK is included. We ship Worldwide and are happy to quote for Overseas Shipping on request.
