Description

A Set of Three Early 19th Century Spode Vases. Comprising a tall vase and a pair of smaller flanking vases. Each vase in two pieces, the upper element being a scalloped and trumpet shaped vase, the body sweeping in rounded panels, between concave flute borders, toward a foot rim, which fits within the lower element, the downswept shoulders with bowed openings to the bodies to allow the display of single flowers or posies. The bodies of conforming rounded panel and fluted border form. The whole raised up on outward splatted feet. The vases with excellent quality decoration of Oriental gardens glimpsed through borders of rising leaves and scrolled floral friezes. The rims, collars, feet and edges of the decoration in gilt. Height 6 3/4 inches, 17cm. Width 5 inches, 12.5cm. Depth 4 1/4 inches, 11cm. (Larger vase) Date circa 1820.
