Description

Antique Victorian Gilt Bronze Mounted Walnut, Amboyna, and Mahogany Credenza - Late 19th Century An exquisite late 19th-century Victorian credenza, a true testament to the craftsmanship of the era. Crafted from rich walnut, amboyna, and mahogany, this credenza boasts a lavish design highlighted by intricate gilt bronze mounts throughout. The raised centre section features a meticulously crafted pierced gallery rail, adding an elegant touch to the overall design. The cupboard door is adorned with a stunning Sèvres style porcelain plaque, surrounded by foliate line inlay, creating a focal point that exudes sophistication. Open the cupboard door to reveal a shelved interior, providing practical storage space for your treasured belongings. The thoughtful design combines beauty with functionality. Flanking the centre section are mirrored open quarter round shelves, adding a touch of glamour and creating a visually balanced composition. The credenza stands on a shaped plinth base, contributing to its overall grace and stability. Dimensions - Height 113cm x Width 137cm x Depth 41cm
