Description

A late victorian, substantial wall mounting, clock bracket. A late 19th century, solid mahogany bracket. The lipped top table is supported by two solid, scrolled supports and is suspended on the wall by two hidden furniture plates that allow it to be easily and safely 'hooked on' to screw heads fitted to the wall. In very good condition. Solidly constructed. Undamaged but shows signs of usage. Dimensions: The maximum clock base measurements are 7 1/4" deep x 13 1/2" wide. The total bracket size is 7 5/8" deep x 14" wide x 10 3/4" high. For further information please contact us via email at info@bournemouthclocks.co.uk
