Description

A lovely antique French farmhouse table which has been reduced in height at some point to make a fantastic coffee table. It dates from the mid 19th century and has a chestnut planked top with square legs and a small drawer at both ends. The table has a lot of character and a lovely patina. There are some old surface marks and signs of age and use and some old repairs but it is a very solid and sturdy piece. There are signs of historic worm in the legs and the drawers which has all been treated as a precaution and hasn't affected the table structurally or aesthetically. It has been cleaned and gently polished to retain its patina and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
