Description

Long Mahogany Console With Galleried Marble Top An impressively large French or European mahogany console with brass gallery and original green variegated marble top and under tier. Circa 1920/30s. An unusually long length at approx 230cm. With 4 drawers to the front, each numbered I to IV on the underside and bearing original pull handles. The depth is approx 29cm and the height 78cm, so a good narrow depth for when space is optimum, but a statement piece is required. H: 78cm (30.7") W: 230cm (90.6") D: 29cm (11.4") A great piece for an expansive hallway that could be made to look even more impressive with a single or pair of large mirrors above. The green marble giving it a true country house look and it stands solidly and elegantly.
