Description

~ French - Circa 1890 ~ ~~ Excellent condition, fully overhauled ~~ A large and impressive antique French cartel wall clock by A. D. Mougin. Beautifully modelled in the classical style of Louis XVI, in gilded bronze. Shield shaped with acanthus enveloping from the bottom, to the top a flaming urn. The large dial is porcelain enamel on copper with finely cut gilt brass hands and convex glass. The French movement is of high quality and is by A. D. Mougin. It is in excellent clean and running condition having been fully overhauled by our clockmaker. Pendulum is original. It runs for 8 days and strikes the hours and halves on a bell. We have a video of the clock, please ask and we will send you a link or paste the following into your browser:
