Description

English circa 1900 English Country House Bookcase in black paint * English circa 1900 * Presented in refreshed black paint with wax finish * Original locks and keys * Decorative cornice and mirrored decorative plinth * 2 Astragal (1) glazing doors to upper section * 4 shelves * Lower section has 2 doors with decorative fielded panel and paterae * Central Shelf * W: 115cm (45.3") H: 223cm (87.8") D: 39cm (15.4") This wonderful English circa 1900 English Country House Bookcase with 2 piece cabinets has its original locks and keys and is presented in a refreshed black paint and waxed finish. The upper section has a fabulous decorative cornice above two doors with astragal glazing bars and four fitted shelves; the lower section has a decorative mould above two doors with decorative fielded panels and paterae and a single central shelf. The whole stands very well on a decorative plinth which mirrors the design to the cornice. (1) Astragal The word "astragal" comes from the Greek for "ankle-joint", astrágalos and is a small moulding used on glass for glazing bars. An astragal is a decorative moulding profile composed of a half-round surface surrounded by two flat p...
