Description

This Rare, Large Pair of Victorian Staffordshire Figures date from circa 1860. They are modelled as Large, Horned Goats ridden by Royal Children, both with a Parrot on their shoulder. The Potter's naive outlook on life comes to the fore. He made the Goats look as big as horses. This Pair of Figures stand proudly. The overall condition is good. There is the obvious loss of the head of the Princess's Parrot and the tail of the Prince's Goat has been reglued. There is no other restoration. Height: 10 inches (25.5 cm) Express delivery within the UK is included. We ship Worldwide and are happy to quote for Overseas Shipping on request.
