Description

Grand William IV Rosewood Tilt top Dining Table. A fantastic restored Rosewood large tilt top table. We bring to you the most marvellous example of a restored Regency William IV period Tilt top round table of substantial size in Rosewood which was made around C1830. This table has been fully restored so is in stunning condition with a highly glazed French polished finish which shows off the tables beautiful figured wild Rosewood grain. This very rare table features its stunning Rosewood top above its flat frieze, raised on an octagonal baluster pedestal support with turned apron terminating to a concave sided triform platform. The base is raised gracefully on carved Rosewood scroll feet synonymous with the William IV style which conceal its original hidden brass castors to the underside. The table has a stunning idyllic lightly faded rich colour with warm tones which blends in well to other Rosewood or Mahogany furnitures. This table can comfortably accommodate 6 chairs and be used as a formal dining room or even a centre or breakfast table. Already not taking up too much room because of this shape, the top tilts upright for storage with its original quality brass ta...
