Description

A Delightful And Extremely Attractive Superb Quality Late 18th Century Italian Giltwood Wall Mirror, In The Florentine Taste, Having Elegant Profusely Carved Frame, Incorporating Carved Giglio Decoration, Enclosing Old Bevelled Mirror Plate, With Robust Original Panelled Back. This fabulous 18th century Italian giltwood wall mirror is the perfect size to fill a whole variety of different size spaces and settings around the home and comes with an incredibly elegant carved frame. All things considered it is in excellent condition, with just a few old repairs and of course the expected scuffs and scrapes. More often than not however mirrors of this design have been left battered and bruised with many, many repairs and missing pieces so in our opinion its great to find one that has clearly been as well loved as this. The mirror plate itself is old, but possibly not 18th century as the condition is a little too good for that, despite various old marks and ageing. There is also a possibility that the carved frame itself started life designed to hold a painting, only to be relatively quickly converted into the attractive wall mirror which we find today, as that is extremely c...
