Description

A fine George III silver caddy spoon by Thomas Johnson. A lovely example, this caddy is in smooth polished silver with a wide elliptical bowl which joins seamlessly to a gently curving handle. Shaped simply with a heraldic style, a shield top and three pointed finial top the handle. The caddy spoon bears the engraved initials F.W.E. upon the handle and has a lovely polished finish all over.. A lovely collectible spoon with just one scratch visible to the underside of the bowl, otherwise in super antique condition. Hallmarks: London Assay Office 1805 by Thomas Johnson with the Lion Passant mark for sterling silver. Measurements: Length 6.7 cm Size of bowl 4.3 x 3.3 cm Weight: 10.9 grams Weights and measurements are approximate.
