Description

This antique walking stick which is made of bamboo cane has a bamboo root handle, silver monogrammed collar and cleverly conceals a pull out horse measuring stick that is marked for top maker Swaine & Adeney, 185 Piccadilly, London. This wood and brass measure nicely slots inside the cane, has a fitted spirit level and can measure a horse up to 17 hands. The measure displays in hands and cm. This wonderful quality cane has a beautiful rich patina, dates from c1900, has a brass tip and is a good length at 95.5 cm. A desirable cane that would make a wonderful gift and is a great collector's piece for a stick collector. Dimensions: Length: 95.5 cm (37 1/2"). Width of handle: 3.5 cm (1 1/4"). Weight: 222 g. Condition: Very good used antique condition with signs of use in keeping with age. Hallmark on silver collar is rubbed. Some light surface cracks to the cane. Has a wonderful feel and patina.
