Description

This is a lovely early 20th century French bed in antique white with lovely aged paintwork attractively rubbed back. The bed is upholstered in an attractive gold and ivory chinoiserie design fabric and comes with a good solid bespoke base ready for use. The upholstery is in fairly good condition overall with some slight wear to the inside of the base as photographed. This could still be used as it is or would be an easy one to recover. This takes a standard Kingsize mattress 150cms by 200cms. The bed measures 122 cms high at the head, 85 cms high at the base and is 160 cms wide by 2.12 metres long overall. UK delivery can be arranged with our trusted furniture courier and costs £65 plus vat to most destinations.
