Description

A superb late 18th century (circa 1790) ash cricket table or tavern table with shelf below of fine, faded patina. This table consists of a solid nicely figured two plank ash top with fine, faded patina having the appearance of fruitwood. The top is supported on a tri-form base consisting of a deep rail with three splayed tapering legs joined with a triangular shelf below. This table is in very good condition for age with evidence of old shrinkage to shelf, is of stable construction and can go straight into a home. Size: Height: 28.5" / 72.5cm Width: 25" / 63.5cm Depth: 26" / 66cm Shelf height: 13.5" / 34.25cm
