Description

Dating to the early twentieth century, c.1900/1920, this is an antique cast brass linen thread counter, of course usable to magnify whatever you wish. Heavy solid cast brass with a good undamaged magnifying glass, professionally cleaned and polished, restoring it to its former glory. Rather more special, this example is marked "British Made" and "Inch"; most are unmarked. While folded, it measures 2" x 1 1/2" x 1/2".
