Description

A lovely pair of 18th century Sterling Silver berry spoons. They have long handles with engraved decoration and beautifully decorated bowls with repoussé work berries, pineapples and pears. Neither spoon is engraved with any name or initials and they are excellent quality, weighing approximately 135g in total. They are both fully hallmarked for London, 1790, George Smith & William Fearn. They measure approximately 8 1/2" (22cm) long. The spoon heads themselves are 3" (8cm) long and 1 1/2" (4cm) wide. They are in excellent condition. There are no major damages and they display beautifully. There are some faint surface marks and a few minor signs of age and use but nothing detrimental. They have been lightly cleaned and polished and are ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
