Description

Handsome late Georgian mahogany centre table, its surface richly grained and encircled by a delicately carved anthemion motif. The table rises majestically from a robustly sculpted central column and unfolds into four splayed legs, each culminating in an elegant scroll foot, subtly equipped with concealed brass castors. This table, remarkable for its harmonious proportions and the assured craftsmanship of its carvings, is available in an immaculate condition that would be the highlight of any interior. Height: 29 inches (74 cm) Diameter: 52 inches (132 cm)
