Description

A good quality Victorian mahogany writing desk dating from the late 19th century. It has two drawers, each with turned wooden knobs, and it stands on turned tapering legs with brass castors. The top has a raised gallery and an inset green leather writing surface with gilt tooled edging. The desk is in very good condition. It is generally clean and tidy throughout and the writing surface is in good order. The drawers open well and the desk moves well on its castors. There are normal signs of light wear and age but nothing detrimental and it displays beautifully. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
