Description

Large 19thc rosewood curio cabinet This large 19thc rosewood curio cabinet was made circa 1870. The cabinetmaker used the finest materials when constructing this magnificent curio cabinet. A superb curio cabinet of this size and quality is rare. The curio or bijouterie cabinet stands on elegant long cabriole legs with gilt bronze mounts. The cabinet has glass to all sides and the lid that has the wonderful cast bronze border that edges the rosewood frame and the bevelled glass to the centre. The lid with a lock and key lifts to allow you access to the lined display area, where you can display your precious collection. Imagine the thrill of owning this stunning cabinet and how it will enhance your enjoyment of viewing your collection. 89cms wide 35ins 60cms deep 23 1/2ins 77.5cms high 30 1/2ins All measurements are as accurate as possible.
