

SA1063063Japanese Silk Textile By Iida Takashimaya Company

Price

GBP 12,500

| USD $16,915 | EUR 14,626

Item Reference: SA1063063Date of manufacture: 1890

Dimensions

Height = 68 cm (26.8")

Width = 54.5 cm (21.5")

Depth = 8.5 cm (3.3")

Description

As part of our Japanese works of art collection we are delighted to offer this charming Meiji period 1868-1912 embroidery of a chin dog aside a spray of peacock feathers and by one of the most famous textile company's of the period, the Iida Takashimaya company, the breathtaking and simply captivating detail of the silkwork demonstrates some of the finest possible stitching methods available at that time and not surpassed to this day, the silk picture is cushioned and housed within its original black lacquered wood frame and importantly bearing the original and scarce Iida Takashimaya factory label to the reverse, an absolute masterpiece from a golden period of textile production, this picture would light up the wall of any room particularly your Japanese themed space .
 Provenance : UK Collection . Featured in - 2020 Vision of an enlightened ruler exhibition - plate 39 Literature : There is little doubt that a major part of the phenomenon of Japanese works of art exploding onto the worldwide stage leading up to and during the Meiji period was bought about by the Textile manufacturers of Kyoto, the most recognized of which will undoubtedly be the Nishimura company, fo...

Seller Details

Steve Sly Japanese Works of Art

Stags Head Antiques Ltd Bournemouth Dorset United Kingdom

Tel: 07774 635918

International Tel: +44 7774 635918