Description

One of the largest, heaviest, and most impressive 17thc oak gateleg tables, I have bought....it is from the reign of Charles 11 and stands on large boldly turned bobbin legs,....it has a thick pegged top with original hand made hinges and has gained a very good natural colour and original patination.... it has a useful drawer at each end....and even retains the original toes on each leg. English. C1660-80.
