Description

The Large Oak antique French farmhouse table is a substantial and beautifully crafted piece of furniture. It features a sturdy base with a centre and end stretcher, ensuring stability and durability. The legs are square chamfered and joined by a stretcher, adding to the table's structural strength. The table top is made of large boards with cleated ends, giving it a rustic and authentic farmhouse look. The top has a beautiful medium brown colour with a lovely soft patina, adding to its charm and character. This table is versatile and would suit any home decor style. Its size and design make it a statement piece that would look amazing in any space.
