Description

A fantastic Regency mahogany and ebony inlaid sofa table. A testament to the grandeur of its time, the table boasts a polished top, adorned with two functional frieze drawers, perfect for stowing away your cherished items. The artistry continues with two matching dummy drawers at the rear, a clever design that maintains the table's symmetrical allure. The table stands proudly on a central column, its curves turned with precision, evoking the refined taste of the Regency period. This column gives rise to boldly reeded sabre legs, a daring design choice that exudes confidence and stability. Each leg culminates in original gilt brass castors, their intricate details shimmering with a golden glow, adding both mobility and a touch of opulence. This sofa table is not just a piece of furniture; it's a slice of history, offered in showroom condition, ready to grace your home with its timeless beauty and functional elegance. Whether placed in a study, lounge, or hallway, it promises to be a conversation starter, an heirloom piece that will be treasured for generations to come.
