Description

An early 19th century mahogany side table with a shaped backboard and raised on turned and chamfered tapering legs. There is a very useful drawer concealed at the side of the table. The excellent proportions of this table mean it is extremely versatile, it would sit well in any room and especially in a narrow space where it would make a perfect hall table. The table stands well and is in good original condition. c. 1830 Width: 41" 104 cm Depth: 16" 41 cm Height to top of backboard: 37" 94 cm Height to table top: 30" 76.5 cm
