Description

A fabulously stylish pedestal tea cup and saucer by Brown-Westhead, Moore & Co. with their iconic rope twist moulded handle that "splits" below the terminal to loop around the foot. The main body in a stunning clear celeste bleu turquoise enamel topped with a wide set of gilt bands, a very fine sawtooth or dentil band below a sandwich of a wide band between two finer. The wider main band has an intricately reserved pattern very well painted in green and black enamel to depict a running piece of swagged silk. Marked with pattern number C5870 and with the printed registration lozenge mark dated for 1868. The cup measures 9.2cm (3 5/8") rim to rim and 6cm (2 3/8") high and the saucer is 13.8cm (5 7/16") and 2.3cm (15/16") high. In excellent condition with no damage, repair or restoration and minimal handling wear.
