Description

Jean Charles Cazin (1841–1901) was a French artist, teacher and ceramist. He worked in both France and England and was noted for landscapes and for paintings on religious themes. His earlier works reflect the realist style, but his later paintings are more associated with impressionism. The present painting "Landscape with figure" is an oil painting measuring 8"x 13". It is unsigned and is framed in a gilt frame giving an overall size of 12"x 17".
