Description

A French Louis XVI style painted armoire, late 19th century, the pierced and carved arch top cornice flanked by turned finials over a pair of mirror doors, a lower drawer and raised on turned feet. The interior currently fitted with a pair of hanging rails but would originally have been shelved - this could easily be re-converted as it has the typical French adjustable side supports. 240cm high max, 114cm wide, 43cm deep.
