Item Reference: SA1063777

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

This 19th-century Spanish Rosewood side chair retains its original needlework on both the back and seat. The elegantly shaped back features a scrolling carved pediment, and it stands on turned legs with castors. The chair has undergone restoration, with joints re-glued and the cleaned original needlework reinforced with hessian. It has been stitched into new wine velvet, and finished with suitable braiding, though it shows signs of age and wear. Dimensions: H 117cm x W 50cm x D 65cm. Delivery within mainland UK is typically £70, with final rates dependent on destination, complexity, coastal and congestion charges. For an exact delivery quote, please contact Richie at 07912624065. International shipping is available. Viewings can be scheduled at our workshop showroom by appointment. Should you wish to return the item, which is highly unlikely, all transport costs are the responsibility of the customer.
