Description

A lovely French Antique Wrought Iron Garden Table. The attractive pierced circular top supported by a hand wrought four legged base. The four sweeping scrolled legs adjoined by central ring stretcher. The whole covered in layers of time worn paint. The table has a wonderful look and condition wise it is firm and solid. Obviously being an outdoor table and open to the elements it has wear. There are areas of loss to the lip of the table top but the areas around these are firm and not crumbling. A very decorative table that would work equally well indoors.
