Description

A lovely example of an early 20th century stacking oak bookcase in the style of Globe Wernicke. It has three glazed sections with an 'up and over' sliding door and below is a long drawer with brass handles. It is a good quality piece with a nicely finished plinth and a good colour to the oak. As is typical with these pieces each section splits down so it can be easily transported. It is in good condition for its age and displays well. It is not without some minor marks and knocks but no major damages or anything detrimental. The bookcase has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
