Description

For sale is a charming vintage pine corner cupboard dating back to around 1910. It features a convenient drawer at the top and a cupboard door below, opening from left to right, revealing ample shelving inside. Despite its age, this piece is in remarkable condition, currently sporting a natural bare wood finish. It's available for purchase in its current state for £560, or for £627 if you prefer it waxed. Although the drawer traditionally requires a key for opening, we can install knobs upon request. Inside, you'll find two full-depth shelves and a distinctive 'gallery shelf' at the top (see photos). For your convenience, I'll ensure the plinth at the bottom is securely fixed before your collection if you opt to buy it as is. Dimensions: Height: 57" Width: 36" Depth: 21"
