Description

Step into the enduring charm of the early 20th century with this exquisite oak wardrobe, a timeless piece that seamlessly combines functionality with elegance. Crafted in 1910, this wardrobe boasts the classic design elements of the era, showcasing the enduring appeal of oak wood. The focal point of this wardrobe is the oval bevel-edged mirror door at its centre, adding a touch of sophistication and vintage allure to the piece. Behind the mirror door lies spacious hanging space, providing ample room to organise and store your clothing and accessories. Retaining all of its original handles, this wardrobe exudes authenticity and charm, each handle telling a story of craftsmanship and attention to detail. These handles not only add to the wardrobe's visual appeal but also ensure ease of use and functionality. At the base of the wardrobe, a singular drawer offers additional storage space for smaller items or linens, further enhancing the wardrobe's versatility and practicality. Supported by square legs, this wardrobe stands with stability and presence, adding a touch of classic elegance to any room. The decorative mouldings adorning the wardrobe's surface enhance its beauty ...
