This a fine quality antique English Victorian walnut etagere / display stand, decorated with a gilt gallery and marquetry inlaid panels, comprising three tiers with a lockable drawer, circa 1870, in good condition. The style and design of this stand is typical of the Aesthetic period, during the late Victorian era. The top incorporates a brown veined leather skiver; the perimeter is decorated with an elegant brass fretwork gallery, with circular protruding corners. A single working drawer sits below the top section; retaining its original brass key escutcheon, working brass lever lock and original key. The drawer is constructed from chestnut linings, with f...
