Description

Add a touch of historic charm to your bedroom with this exquisite antique 18th-century bow-fronted wardrobe, crafted from rich mahogany and dating back to the year 1800. This wardrobe is not just a piece of furniture; it's a timeless statement of elegance and craftsmanship. Standing proudly on bracket feet, this wardrobe exudes classical sophistication with its gracefully curved bow front design. Two spacious drawers at the base, adorned with their original brass handles, offer convenient storage for your smaller items, adding both practicality and beauty to the piece. The large hanging space above, concealed by two imposing doors, provides ample room for your clothing and accessories, ensuring everything stays neatly organised and within reach. Complete with a key, this wardrobe offers both security and style, allowing you to store your belongings with peace of mind. Adorned with intricate ebony inlays, this wardrobe showcases meticulous attention to detail and craftsmanship of the highest caliber. The mahogany wood boasts a gorgeous grain and colour, adding warmth and richness to any room it graces. In overall good condition, this antique wardrobe is a rare find, offeri...
