Description

Elevate your bedroom with the timeless elegance of this antique 20th-century wardrobe, crafted from luxurious satinwood and dating back to 1900. This wardrobe is not just a functional storage solution; it's a statement of vintage charm and enduring quality. In good condition, this wardrobe boasts a large bevel-edged mirror door to the centre, adding both practicality and sophistication to your space. The mirror door not only reflects light, creating a sense of openness, but also serves as a stylish accent piece. Complete with a singular drawer at the base, this wardrobe offers additional storage space for your essentials, ensuring both style and functionality. Its plinth base provides stability and sturdiness, while all its original brass handles and fittings add to its authenticity and charm. Designed for convenience, this wardrobe conveniently comes apart into three sections, making transportation a breeze while preserving its structural integrity. The satinwood showcases a beautiful grain and colour, enhancing the wardrobe's natural beauty and adding warmth to any room. Whether placed in a bedroom, hallway or dressing area, this antique wardrobe promises to elevate yo...
