Description

This large French chandelier has six reeded arms to the lower section with glass petal shades. Three arms to the top with candles and a centre candle. There is a removable brass basket going around this central area - please see pictures, only one picture has the basket because I think the chandelier looks better without it. It is up to you if you want this or not and if it fits with your decor. The chandelier is decorated with strings of glass grapes in orange, purple, pink and clear. This piece comes with small screw bulb holders. The chandelier has been wired so the lower section can be lit, the top section can be lit or both can be lit together. st 3568
