Description

Victorian Walnut and Marquetry Inlaid Breakfront Credenza with Gilt Metal Mounts Victorian era figured walnut and marquetry inlaid breakfront credenza, crafted circa 1860. Standing at 108 cm, this piece is a symphony of craftsmanship and design. The central glazed door, adorned with gilt metal mounts, opens to reveal sumptuous velvet-lined shelves, flanked by additional open shelves, offering a perfect blend of display and storage. The figured walnut veneer is a showcase of natural beauty, complemented by intricate marquetry inlay that reflects the Victorian penchant for detailed craftsmanship. The wood grain patterns add depth and character to the piece. The central glazed door, embellished with gilt metal mounts, serves as a focal point. Opening to reveal velvet-lined shelves, it provides an elegant display space for your cherished items, combining functionality with aesthetics. Flanked by gilt metal mounts, the open shelves on either side offer additional display space, creating a balanced and harmonious composition. These shelves are perfect for showcasing decorative pieces or storing items you want within easy reach. The credenza is adorned with two oval porcelain pl...
