Description

A lovely walnut 19th Century jewellery box. The lid, which is lined in quilted silk, opens to reveal a tray with compartments, some with silk lined lids. There is a bevelled glass fronted flap which encloses two more silk lined drawers which have their original brass handles. The whole locks with a key. It is a beautiful piece with a good patina and in very good condition. Circa 1880. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland and can calculate the cost for international delivery. Payment by bank transfer, PayPal or card via telephone.
