Description

This is a beautiful Edwardian antique mahogany library bookcase, masterfully crafted in rich solid mahogany, Circa 1900 in date. The bookcase features a stepped and cavetto cornice over four astragal glazed doors, the lower part of each is panelled, flanked by fluted pilasters, each opening to reveal three adjustable shelves. It has its original glazing as well as the original working locks and keys, and is raised on a plinth base. There is no mistaking its superb quality and very grand design, which is certain to make it a talking point in your home and stand proud in whichever room you choose to display it. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 143.5 cm x Width 197 cm x Depth 40 cm. Dimensions in inches: Height 4 foot, 8 inches x Width 6 foot, 6 inches x Depth 1 foot, 4 inches. Mahogany is probably one of the largest 'families' of hardwood, having many different varieties within its own species. Mahogany has been used for centuries in ship building, house building, furniture making etc and is the core structure of just about ev...
