Description

A fine and impressive 2.84 carat aquamarine and 0.10 carat diamond, 18 carat white gold ring; part of our diverse antique jewellery collections. This fine and impressive antique aquamarine ring has been crafted in 18ct white gold. The pierced decorated setting displays an impressive feature claw set 2.84 carat square faceted cut aquamarine. The elevated ring shoulders are each accented with three pavé set eight-cut diamonds within a triangular setting, melding with the plain ring shank. This antique ring has been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as 18 carat gold. This 1930s aquamarine ring in white gold is supplied with an IDGL diamond and gemstone grading report card. Images do not always reflect the true colour and brilliance of gemstones and diamonds. The video however provides a truer representation of the actual colour and showcases each stone. Condition This impressive ring is excellent quality, set with an impressive aquamarine displaying fine colour, brilliance and presence; there is some minor surface wear to the high points of the aquamarine, visible under an eye loupe. The diamonds display a fine wh...
