Description

A very stylish silver powder compact case made by Dunhill. Very attractive design, the case is a square shape and is decorated with an engine turned pattern and features a gorgeous rose coloured metal inlay to the front. The lid opens with a neat concealed hinge and is spring loaded, and the case opens when a rose gold-coloured button is pressed at the front. Inside the case the original powder mesh cover is revealed, still in great condition, along with the powder puff. There is a bevelled mirror under the lid that is in super condition with no marks on the glass. The interior has a lovely gilt finish and hallmarks are visible for Birmingham 1963 and the maker's mark and logo: Dunhill & Sons. A fabulous compact by a renowned maker. Condition: In great vintage condition. Hallmarks: Birmingham 1963 by Dunhill & Sons. Measurements: 7.8 cm x 7.8 cm Weight: 131.7 grams Weights and measurements are approximate.
