Description

This fine quality Italian mahogany pedestal desk is a testament to fine craftsmanship and timeless elegance. The desk features a raised upper section that houses a practical combination of drawers and pigeon holes, perfect for organising documents. The writing surface beneath has been newly covered, providing a smooth and durable area for writing or placing a laptop, which conveniently slides out for easy access. The desk's frieze is adorned with three deep drawers, offering ample storage space for larger items. These drawers are supported by a panelled base, which includes two cupboard doors, each opening to reveal additional storage compartments. The entire structure is elevated on a sturdy plinth base, enhancing its grandeur and stability. Attention to detail is evident in the panelled sides and back of the desk, allowing it to be freestanding and displayed prominently in any room, from all angles. The desk's rich mahogany finish radiates warmth and sophistication, making it a focal point of any office or study. Adding to its historical charm, the underside of the desk preserves two fragmentary labels that narrate the desk's journey from Genova, Italy, to the reside...
