Description

George V walnut gentlemen's tallboy This fine George V walnut gentlemen's tallboy was made circa 1930 and retailed from a top furniture store usually Harrods. The cabinetmaker would have been very skilled to make this serpentine and block fronted shape, using fine figured walnut veneers. The top section is a cupboard fitted 2 doors that open to reveal the interior with a shelf. Imagine how much you will store in here. It would also make a wonderful gin palace/drinks cabinet or a place to put an audio system. The bottom section has 3 graduated drawers, all with the original handles. The George V walnut gentlemen's tallboy stands on straight bracket feet.
